

Emprevo is committed to ensuring that all its operations meet all relevant Occupational Health and Safety legislation and regulatory standards.

We aim to minimise the impact of our operations and our products on the environment and to provide a safe and healthy workplace for all our employees, contractors and visitors.

OHS is an integral part of the way we conduct our business, and we are committed to continuous improvement in this area. All employees and contractors are expected to carry out their responsibilities in accordance with this policy statement.

The OHS Committee will have overall responsibility for the design and implementation of (Company)'s OHS Management System.

EMPREVO will -

- › provide safe working conditions and procedures and facilities which comply with relevant legislation and regulatory standards;
- › ensure the Company's OHS rules and practices are effective and appropriate;
- › provide opportunity through its safety committees for OHS related matters to be identified, reviewed and resolved;
- › provide OHS training to employees, enabling them to contribute to improved OHS performance

MANAGERS AND SUPERVISORS will -

- › take a lead role in promoting and implementing safety in the workplace;
- › ensure that facilities and equipment are adequate to provide safe working conditions for all employees;
- › communicate with employees with regard to workplace health and safety matters which may affect them.

EMPLOYEES will -

- › follow safe working practices and procedures
- › report all unsafe situations, acts, conditions, near misses and injuries within their workplace
- › actively support the Company's OHS Policy and take a personal interest in maintaining safe working conditions.

ERNEST MEDINA
Managing Director

Date: 1 January 2017